

INDEX.

Avouty, Christ's, to save, is of himself, 44. Natural and moral, defined, 129, 137. Spiritual, to Adam would have been useless, 93, 94. Mr. F.'s view of it defective, 130. The distinction between natural and moral, lost, 131. The distinction unknown in scripture, 132, 133. Natural, rooted in Adam, 133; he had not two abilities, 133. Natural, in Mr. F.'s sense, not sufficient to render man at first, an accountable moral agent, 134. Viewed in two public heads, and as either natural or spiritual, 134. What is here meant by natural, 135. What by spiritual, 137—141. Man has none sufficient for his duty, 133. A sinner's is only a passive capacity, 148, 150. When lost for doing God's will, existence remains for finally suffering it, 14.

Abimelech, things not evangelically holy required of, 159, 160.

Accountable, men are, 24.

Accountableness, man's, ought to be exegetically insisted on, 4, 24. On what it rests, 144.

Acts rise from their principles, 7, 11, 20. Moral ones described, 159. Leave man exposed to punitive justice, 286. Christ's, intrinsic and meritorious, 191. Spiritual ones, by whom exclusively performed, 254.

Adam, not spiritual, 89—96. His body natural, 94. His principle corruptible, 92; compared with that of the believer, 104, 110, 126. Under previous obligation, how, 341.

Addresses to sinners, 140, 369.

Advocate, Christ is for some only, 307.

Anathema Maranatha, the meaning of, 330, 332.

Angels, fallen ones, 2, 96, 191, 301. Holy ones, why they stand, 117, their desire to look into the mysteries of Christ, 294. Bound to honour God, 307.

Antichrist, noted, 342.

Application, what rules it, 194, 195. Is contained in true faith, 32. What is prior to, 133, 70.

Apply, if we so, 42, 45.

Applying to Christ, noted, 42, 43, 72, 73, 196.

Appropriation, what, 30, 32, 33.

Assurance not essential to a sinner's knowing his duty, 27, 39.

Atonement, payment of a debt, 177, 178. Its grand object, 185, 186. Not equal to the salvation of all men, 187—190. Its sufficiency 190, 191, 193. Made without man's will, 255. Without hinderance from the faults or frailties of man, 358.

Authority, God's, is not lost, 14. Not betrayed, 252.

Aversion, what Mr. F. attributed to it, 152, 153.

Believe, whom God cannot cause to, 17. Who cannot, 16. What saints do, 297.

Believing, an effect of salvation, 12. Not a gift, 174. A lie, what, 52. What Mr. F. deemed necessary to, 7.

Benefactor, a simile taken from a, 243.

Biases, their original cause, 22.

Blessings, spiritual ones belong exclusively to the elect, 95. Are sure, 244.

Blindness, how differently to be understood, 291, 292. Not predicable of Adam, 292.

Book of Life not made up by degrees, 52, 299.

Booth, quoted on the atonement, 185.

Bread, what is? 265, 267. Is given ministerially to men who receive it not, 317.

Brine quoted on the covenant of grace, 178. Again, on Mark xvi. 16. 296.

Button, quoted, 59.

Buy, what it denotes to, 264.

Cain might profess faith in the promised seed, 121.

Calvinists, moderate ones not easily distinguished from methodists, 252.

Causes necessarily precede effects, 11. Of salvation distinguished, 310, 352.

Children, God's described, 270.

Christ, all-sufficient, in what respects, 33, 34. Whom he is suited to save, 35. A spiritual Ruler, 236.

Christian, no man cursed by the law for not being a, 305.

Church, its means of enjoyment, 263.

Cities, why upbraided by Christ, 282, 283.

Coles, Elisha, noted, 197.

Coming to Christ, an effect of grace, 27, 43, 237, 312. What must precede it, 28, 43, 70, 71.

Commandment, what it supposes, 14. Its justice, 15.

Commands, God's, were kept by unregenerate Israel, 218, 219. God gives none that never have been, nor ever can be, kept, 247.

Common Faith, the first thing to be inculcated among the Jews was a, 314.

Condemnation, cause of, 299, 300. What is the evidence of its abiding, 301.

Conscious, the soul is, in believing, 45.

Consciousness, what is, 39. How certain, 238.

Contradictions, Mr. Fuller's, 7, 8, 9, 18, 19, 24, 37, 40, 107, 216, 322.

Conversion, what is, 3, 114. Unpreventable, 145. On marvellous accounts of, 362.

Conviction, by the Holy Spirit, 270.

Covenant, God's, is in different respects both conditional and absolute, 178, 179. Provided for the elect only, 194. Of Sinai, in different respects, considered, 234, 235, 350. Of works, all natural men are under a, 285.

Cruden, quoted, on the word Surety, 177.

Day of grace, sure, 268.

Days, man's, are determined, 169.

Death, how set forth by the Apostles, 226. How Christ's avails not, 2. What it evidences, 180.

Decree, God's, is either effective or permissive, 173. Not conditional, 175. Partly revealed, 175. An objection raised against Mr. F.'s views from God's decrees, 165.

Designed, the salvation of the rest never was, 301.

Differ, sinners do, while unregenerate, 247.

Dilemma, Mr. F.'s, answered, 244—247.

Disobedient, how they are to be instructed, 26.

Disposition, what is a, 18. Distinguished from a principle, 114, 115.

Doctrine, Mr. F.'s error respecting the tendency of his, noted, 154. Sound, not approved by some professors, 253.

Doctrines, the Lord will have many believe in a natural way, 258.

Door, Christ has not opened one for sinners in general, 192, 194.

Doubleminded, some saints are, 347.

Due, what was at first, 234.

Duty, to be, what is? 22. Belongs to the law, 4, 13, 23. Rooted in favour, 28, 217, 233, 240. Is restricted to acts, 22. Is voluntary, ibid. Things not spiritually holy, proved to be, 155—165. Instances in section XVI. To do what? 19.

Earnest, the saints' principle is, 92, 93.

Eat, good things, the saints should, 266.

Elect, redeemed from the law, 122. God's, never die in sin, 318. Cannot lose the grace given in Christ, 53. How chosen, 173. All saved, 317, 318.

Election, badly spoken of by Mr. F., 56. The cause of faith, 167.

Enemies of Christ, some are not, 23.

Enmity against Christ is without just reason, 340.

Equity, divine, cannot act contrary to itself, 13.

Escape, the unredeemed cannot, 26, 29, 64.

Evil is of the creature, 359.

Excluded, the non-elect are, from salvation, 192. The redeemed are not, 198.

Exegetically and exhortatively distinguished, 4.

Exemplar, Christ was, 109.

Exhortation, what it supposes, 14, 15, 290. How absurd and useless, 24, 239, 95. Addressed to character, 5. Proceeds on the idea of interest 347.

Faith, none can have it but as an absolute gift, 17. Stands in the power of God, 41. Defined, 29, 30, 47—49, 90. Is not a putting of salvation into Christ, 12, 104. If a duty, must be so in the highest degree, 16, 30, 31, 34. Unknown to the law, 4. Spiritual, not merely a duty, 27. Its absence in the unregenerate no sin, 4. Includes the nature of assurance, 46, 47. Is an effect of divine influence, 42. The effect of union to Christ, 4. Not a duty to the unregenerate, 11. On what it terminates, 41. What must precede it, 28, 42, 50. As a principle, noted, 104, 174. Historical, is useful, 51, 53, 157, 158. Natural, described, 48, 300. Possible to the unregenerate, 49, 57, 66. Radically and formally, noted, 89, 91. The fruit of election, 90. Natural, required of the Jews, 116, 314. What hinders the act of it, according to Mr. F., 147—149. Who (he says) has a fair ground for it? 197.

Fear, godly, what is? 214, 215. Natural, required, 207—215. Had the promise of longevity, 211.

Feast, the gospel is a, 75, 77, 266.

Fools, saints so called, 257.

Friends, all men not bound to be Christ's, 23, 34, 304.

Fuller, his six propositions, 6.

His system saves the elect only, 3, 12, 354. Is incoherent, 10. What it involves, 25, 26.

Has no advantage over ours, 4, 12, 73, 202, 254, 317.

Is inconsistent with itself, 26, 40.

Is overturned by his own concession, 20, 254.

Is contradictory, 40, 45.

Is founded on disputed premises, 17.

His arguing refutes himself, 20, 32, 37, 104, 107, 112, 247, 339. His definition of faith, 8, 47, 91, 104, Allowed, in other words, what he opposed, 32, 33. On what is duty, 6, 7, 8, 22. On what is needful to, and precedes, faith, 7, 22. His definition of regeneration, 6, 18. His contradictions, 7, 8, 9, 18, 19, 24, 26, 37, 40, 107, 216, 322. On the grounds of obligation, 7, 8, 24, 25. On the promise as given and received, 8. On the gospel warrant, 8. On the peculiarity of the atonement, 8. His definition of spiritual power, 9. On things possible and things impossible, 9. Owned, that it is certain some men will perish, and that their salvation is impossible 9. On the disposition of the mind, 18. Reasons as though every grace of Christ was required of the heathen world, though they had no revelation, 25. Speaks of internal and external duties and truths, 54. Blends scriptures that ought to be kept distinct, 216, 218, 219, 274, 281, 284, 354, 355. Erred as to the tendency of his doctrine, 154. Led astray by his sentiment, 284. Wrote like an Arminian, 286. His view of Christ's mediation censured, 338.

Gill, Dr. quoted on Deut. v. 29, 214, on Deut. xxx. 19, 20, 233, on Acts iii. 19, 20, 326, and on Union, 84.

Gospel, not a law, 24, 337. What it is, 68, 69. Warrants all the regenerate to come to Christ, 71. Its doctrines little esteemed by many, 150. Why preached to men and not to devils, 191, 192. What must be believed to believe it, 297. Why preached to sinners in general, 362. Mr. F.'s, a strange one, 310—312. What it exhibits, 76. What it cannot include, 79. Hid, 291. Its discovering effects, 300.

Grace defined, 126, 367. Described, 366, 368. Coming to Christ the effect of, 237. How to be magnified, 27. Glorified more by the system here defended, than by Mr. F.'s, 364—368.

Guilty, what it is to be, 181.

Hammond, Dr. quoted, on regeneration, 18.

Heathens, spiritual love required of them, according to Mr. F., 25.

Judas, not adopted, but dealt with according to law, 211.

Key, an explanatory, 204.

King, Christ is a spiritual one, 338. Kingdom, Christ's, founded on his cross, 306, 338.

Knowledge, noted, 102. Is prolific seed, 353. How some lack, 351. Many perish with bibles in their hands, 350. God's people may be partially destroyed through lack of, 352.

Laban, an instance of duty required that was not holy, 160.

Labour, some do, for what is not bread, 265. Required for true bread, 313.

Law, all men under it by nature, 1, 4, 11. Knows nothing of Christ, 15.

Requires all duty, 13, 206, 249.

How it requires spiritual acts, 5, 220. In what it is founded, 24, 206.

Supposes either the absence or existence of sin, 13. Should be distinguished as a rule of justification, and a rule of sanctification, 13.

Requires not spiritual love, 13, 15.

Requires not the sinner to seek perfection in a Mediator, 15. Requires nothing as a means of salvation, 15, 246.

Requires the same of all the unregenerate, 15, 246. Requires not spiritual faith, 4, 16.

How it makes belief a duty, 25. None but the regenerate are under it to Christ, 27.

Its demands on subjects differently related, 110. Differently written on the heart, 111. Its end is Christ, 110. The standard of duty to the carnal, 4, 121. A debt book, 132. On what ground it condemns, 216. Requires not faith in the highest degree, 16.

Life, spiritual, not promised to law-requirements, 87. Adam's, not spiritual, 103. How promised to Israel, 223. How set before the people by the Apostles, 225. What is? 267. Its causes, 310. Temporal, offered to the Jews, 309.

System, Mr. F.'s, is inferior, 354. Has a powerful tendency to conceal the immanent acts of God, 355. Is not consistent with particular redemption, 356, 357. Is opposed to the due and distinct honour of the sacred persons in God, 357. Tends to obscure absolute election, 357. Tends to confound the scriptural order of given grace and sure redemption, 358, 362. Speaks of possible salvation, 361. Led him to dwell on holiness as a thing that ought to be, rather than as a thing that must be, 362, 363.
Tendency of Mr. F.'s system, 284. Of both systems, 353—368.

Things, excellent, what are, 257.
Thirst, what is, 260, 262, 264.
Threatenings, may never be executed, 38.
Trust, for what sinners should, 34, 36.
 What it is, 239. Its root, 36. Not required of all, 224, 225. Natural, 242. Supposes interest, 240, 75.
Truth, to receive the love of the, 343, 52.
Unbelief, what is? 4. Its contrary, 23. Is a heinous sin, 299, 323. Aggravates the sinner's guilt, 302. Does not render any man's damnation more certain in itself, 173.
Unconverted. Mr. F. says, untruly, they are all under the curse of the law, 83.
Union to Christ described, 84. Not by faith originally, 85.
United, Adam was not, to Christ, 93.
Unregenerate, such may believe Christ to be lovely, 57, 58. Virtually and formally, noted, 25. Not all alike, 62, 63. Not correctly spoken of by Mr. F., 64. May believe the gospel, 54, 55, 59, 60, 66, 67. What commanding them to believe supposes, 13. Not required to exercise spiritual faith, 16.

Warrant, to what it refers, 78. How limited, 78, 79.
Warranted, Mr. F. says the damned were, to trust in Christ for their salvation, 72-74. Who are, to trust in Christ, 28. What it involves, 46, 71.
Warrants, the gospel does not all men to trust in Christ, 36, 69, 70.
Waters, what is signified by, 262.
Weyman, when he wrote, 29. His description of moral acts, 159. His definition of faith, 29-31.
Withers, Dr. his appeal to reason, 10. The title he gave to Mr. F.'s book, 142.
Wheat, profited by chaff while it stands in the field, 158.
Will, God's, is immutable, 192, 194. What is meant by the term, in connexion with invitations given in the word, 243. Its acts, the effects of prior agency, 50. Only to be gained through the understanding, 21.
Willing, Christ is, before sinners are, 44.
World, the natural, is on the side of the general exhortation-men, 253.
Worship, thoughts on, 122, 123.
